Brock International Speaker Series

Academic Colloquium by Members of Faculty of Education, North-West University, South Africa

present

Democracy, Education Change and Transformations in South Africa: Interdisciplinary Considerations

Chaired by Dr. Dolana Mogadime (Brock University) & Professor Kobus Mentz (North-West University)

A panel of six visiting scholars from North-West University will discuss the state of education in South Africa today. Each presenter will discuss a lens on the issues from their field of study which ranges from: Health (health promoting schools) and Educational Psychology; Law and Education; Human Movement; Mathematics; Leadership, Organizational Climate and Culture in Schools. The panel welcomes conversations on mutual research interests related to these issues with Brock University colleagues.

Tuesday, April 1, 2008
10:00 am to 12:00 pm
Board Room, 13 th Floor
Schmon Tower, Brock University
Everyone is welcome to attend

For more information, please contact Dr. Mogadime, Department of Graduate and Undergraduate Studies, Faculty of Education at dmogadime@brocku.ca

Professor Kobus Mentz

Professor Kobus Mentz is a Professor in Education Sciences at North-West University. His academic research focus is Educational Leadership, Organizational theory, Organizational climate and culture in schools, Gender and Equity.

Dr. Dorita du Toit

Dr. Dorita du Toit is a Professor in the Faculty of Education Sciences at North-West University. Her research focus is Human Movement Education and Health Education.

Mr. Marius Smit

Mr. Marius Smit is a faculty member in the Faculty of Education Sciences, North-West University. While at Brock, he will be presenting on the topic of Education Law.

Dr. Charles Viljoen

Dr. Viljoen is a Professor in the Faculty of Education Sciences. While at Brock, Dr. Viljoen will share his expertise in Health-promoting schools and Psychology of Education through an academic talk and meetings with Brock Education faculty members.

Professor JP Rossouw

Professor JP Rossouw is a Professor in the Faculty of Education Science. During his visit to Brock, he will be meeting with faculty members in the Faculty of Education. He will also be be sharing his knowledge of Education Law during the Academic Colloquium.

Ms. Joany Fransman

Ms. Joany Fransman is a faculty member in the Faculty of Education Science. During her visit, she will be sharing her knowledge of Mathematics Education with the Brock community at the Academic Colloquium .

This Academic Colloquium is an initiative led by the Faculty of Education and Brock International

Brock University