

STUDENTS: FIND SUCCESS

BROCK UNIVERSITY STUDENT DEVELOPMENT CENTRE
LEARNING SKILLS SERVICES SUPPORT LISTINGS

The team at Brock University's Learning Skills Services is dedicated to supporting your efforts to find success in your studies. We've developed a number of resources that can help you grow as a dedicated and inspired student during your tenure at Brock. Please see below for a list of offerings that are at your disposal on campus and on-line.

Essay-Zone™: This interactive on-line resource will help empower you, as a student, to take greater ownership of your educational experiences and development outside of class hours. Available 24/7/365, Essay-Zone™ will help you learn the fundamentals of successful University writing, improved research tips, thesis development, topic analysis and much more! Essay-Zone™ will strengthen your writing skills, bettering your chances of presenting a paper that will captivate your profs.

Please speak with your professor to confirm that your class has access to this resource. If you do not have access, ask your prof to contact Learning Skills Services at academic-zone@brocku.ca to bring Essay-Zone™ to your classroom.

Workshops: Learning Skills Services offers unique workshops for Brock students, utilizing a diverse range of topics to support you as you take on greater academic challenges. Designed specifically for a group dynamic, these workshops will bring clarity to even your toughest areas of study, while allowing you to learn from your peers in an interactive and fun way.

For more information, or to request a workshop with Learning Skills Services, please visit us on-line at <http://www.brocku.ca/learning-skills/workshops/order-a-workshop>.

Drop-In Centre: Located in the Hildebrand Learning Centre of the Learning Commons (ST 231), Learning Skills student staff work collaboratively with students, helping them develop their potential and confidence as university students in areas such as essay writing, science, math, problem solving, or general study skills (e.g., time management or exam preparation). Support from our dedicated student staff at the drop-in centre, as well as one-to-one consultations with a Learning Skills Instructor (at certain times of the day) are available. No appointment is required. For more information and to view the drop-in centre's schedule, please visit us on-line at <http://www.brocku.ca/learning-skills/drop-in-learning-centre>.

We invite you to drop in at any time and take advantage of the knowledge and experience of our Learning Skills staff as part of your pursuit of success here at Brock University.

“Keys to Success”: Finding success in your studies demands that you have the proper tools at your disposal. The Learning Skills Services Team realizes this and has created a quick tips guide that you can download from the Brock University website. Chock full of helpful hints and strategies to help you excel in your studies at Brock, this manual will ensure that you never leave your house without your keys (to success) again.

To download your copy, please visit us on-line at <https://brocku.ca/sdc/learning/studywritemanual.php> and enter your campus log-in and password.

The Many Faces of Brock University: Being a student at Brock University means that you are part of a truly diverse mosaic. From students representing Canada’s Aboriginal communities, to mature students furthering their education, to students with unique learning needs, the team in Learning Skills Services understands you are unique, and that the same goes for the support you require. This team has worked and continues to work hard to develop support tools and resources that work harmoniously with our broad spectrum of students, helping each and every student confidently meet the challenges of their studies head-on, achieving success at each step.

For more information, please visit us on-line at <https://brocku.ca/learning-skills> and click on the appropriate link for the support you require on the left-hand navigation bar.

On behalf of the Learning Skills Services Team, we thank you for taking the time to review our support listings, and look forward to working with you in your efforts to Find Success.

About Learning Skills Services

Learning Skills Services is one of the seven services provided through the Student Development Centre (SDC) and strives to help each and every student make the most of their academic career at Brock University through support resources, guidance, counselling and tutoring. Learning Skills Services is located on the 4th floor of the Schmon Tower, with office hours from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. Many Learning Skills services are delivered in Learning Commons and are available in the evening. For more information, we invite you to contact us at learningskills@brocku.ca.
