

Brock International Speaker Series

Academic Colloquium by the Dean of the Faculty of Education, North-West University, South Africa

Professor PETRA ENGELBRECHT

Petra Engelbrecht is at present Executive Dean, Educational Sciences, North-West University, Potchefstroom campus, South Africa. She is an acknowledged senior researcher in the field of inclusive education, has led several international research projects on the implementation of inclusive education in various countries and has published widely in this regard.

Democracy, Education Change and Transformations in South Africa: Inclusive Education Considerations

Chaired by Dr. Dolana Mogadime

Professor Engelbrecht will speak to such topics as: Increasing urbanisation, choice and equity in education; Parents' experiences of their rights in inclusive education in South Africa.

This second academic colloquium by North-West University scholars at Brock University welcomes conversations on mutual research interests related to issues about inclusive education with Brock University colleagues.

Monday, May 12, 2008

10:00 am to 12:00 pm

Board Room, 13th Floor of Schmon Tower, Brock University
Everyone is welcome to attend

For more information, please contact Dr. Mogadime, Department of Graduate and Undergraduate Studies, Faculty of Education at dmogadime@brocku.ca

This Academic Colloquium

is an initiative led by the Faculty of Education and Brock International

Brock
University